

ARIZONA WOMEN IN THE NRCS

OUR HISTORY IS OUR STRENGTH

April 2011

CURRENT POSTION

District Conservationist in the San Carlos Field Office

EDUCATION

She attended Arizona State University where she majored in agriculture and range management. She received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Environmental Resources and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Agribusiness. She also received a Master of Science Degree in Agribusiness.

HOBBIES

Millie enjoys spending time with her two sons, Isaac and Tiger, traveling, hiking, and gardening.

HOMETOWN

Millie, a San Carlos Apache, was born and raised on the San Carlos Apache Reservation in Arizona.

Millie Titla is the District Conservationist (DC) on the San Carlos Apache Reservation, in Arizona, and is also the West Regional Representative on the NRCS National Tribal Network Committee. She began her career in NRCS in 2001 as the State American Indian Liaison. In addition to her duties as a Liaison, she was also the Chairperson of the Civil Rights Advisory Committee, the Combined Federal Campaign Agency Coordinator, and the Agency Coordinator for the Southwest Strategy Tribal Relations Support Team. Prior to working with NRCS, Millie worked for the San Carlos Apache Tribe as a Soil Conservationist, and was also the President of the San Carlos Apache Natural Resources Conservation District (NRCD). Millie has been a member of the American Indian Alaska Native Employees Association for NRCS (AIANEA) since 2001 and a member of the Society of American Indian Government Employees (SAIGE) since 2004. She served as the Vice President and President of AIANEA, in 2006-2008, and also served on the SAIGE Board of Directors in 2005-2007.

~MILLIE TITLA~